From Monsignor Ron ...

Today, we celebrate the feast of the Ascension of Jesus into Heaven. This feast does not celebrate the end of his presence in the world, but rather a change in the way he is present in the world. It celebrates the fact that Jesus is no longer present in the world through his human body in a physical way. He is now present in the world through his Mystical Body in a spiritual way. He is present also through his Church. This is particularly true whenever we come together in prayer and also whenever we celebrate the Sacraments. Of course, Jesus always present for us in the Blessed Sacrament. As well, we know he is present wherever two or three are gathered in faith.

This feast day of the Ascension teaches us three important lessons. The first is that we are going to live forever with Jesus. The second is that our true home is with Jesus in heaven. The third truth is the reason for the departure of Jesus. From now on the normal way that the church and we will know him will be in the sacraments and in the Mass. This is how he wants to come to all of us today. Wherever we go and wherever we are, Jesus is as close to us as the nearest Catholic Church. The point of the Ascension for us is that to meet the risen Christ today, we do not have to go to Jerusalem, Bethany, the Upper Room where the first Mass was celebrated or the Mount of Olives where Jesus suffered. We have only to come to our Church.

For a moment, I would like to focus on what happens at the end of Mass. At the end of Mass, we are "sent." It is in fact a commissioning ceremony. We say "thanks be to God" which is supposed to mean -- "yes, I am glad to share the mission of the church and I am going out to share the mission I received from Jesus on the day of my baptism."

Today, let us be aware of ourselves as called and chosen. Let us thank our God that he thinks so much of us. Let it hit home that we are the Apostles of Jesus in today's world and that we are all really needed by the people who are part of our lives.

We are to live in a manner worthy of the call we have received -- with all humility, gentleness, patience, bearing with one another through love. We need to get busy and to keep God in the centre of our lives.

Parish Retreat Weekend:

For a long time now, parishioners have been requesting that we conduct a retreat. Well, now the opportunity has arrived and I would encourage parishioners to make the most of this event. Copies of the timetable are available at the doors of the church. Please make the most this opportunity which will take place on the weekend of June 2/3.

Faith Formation on the Acts of the Apostles:

This continues on Wednesday evening at 7:45 PM. Even if you have not come along yet please consider doing so as this helps us to understand the meaning of the season of Easter through the lives of the Christians of the early church.

Please contact the Parish Office, if you are unavailable for your rostered Ministry.

MINISTERS OF COMMUNION - Third Sunday of the Month

On this day each year we remember in particular the opportunity for life that we received from our parents. Today we focus on our mothers. One of the unfortunate facts of life is that too often we take for granted the people who are closest to us and the people who are actually most important in our lives.

Today is a special day, but I hope it is a reminder that is not limited just to today of finding ways to say thank you and show our appreciation to our parents. Certainly, no parent is perfect, but then, neither are we. There are so many things that our parents have had to sacrifice for us and we, as their children, have certainly changed their lives greatly.

Our blessing prayer for this Mother's Day

For our mothers, who have given us life and love, that we may show them reverence and love, we pray to the Lord. R.

For mothers who have lost a child through death, that their faith may give them hope, and their family and friends support and console them, we pray to the Lord. R.

For mothers who have died, that God may bring them into the joy of his kingdom, we pray to the Lord. R.

Loving God, as a mother gives life and nourishment to her children, so you watch over your Church. Bless these women, that they may be strengthened as Christian mothers.

Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honour them always with a spirit of profound respect.

Grant this through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

And may Almighty God bless you all, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. R. Amen.
