Our Annual Bereavement Mass for our Deceased Relatives and Friends

This is a special occasion to pray for people we know who have died and especially for those who have died in the past year. It is also an opportunity to find support in our grief process helping us to find healing from what has happened.

This Mass will take place on Friday evening November 14 at 7:00pm.

On this occasion people are encouraged to bring along a flower
(please note one flower) to be used in the procession.

† As is our custom, at this Mass we will have the blessing of our deceased family members exemplified through the crosses we have placed on the wall of the Church. We encourage parishioners to make their own "Cross" to be placed on the wall of the church.

[This cross should not be bigger than 6.5 cm across, 10 cm from top to bottom, 1.5 cm writing area]

After the Mass there will be a supper.

We encourage parishioners to bring along something for the supper; we also ask for volunteers to help organize and coordinate the supper. This supper has proved to be very important over the past few years, and is a wonderful opportunity for us to support each other by our presence.

If you can help with the organization of this supper please contact the parish office.

God is our hope for salvation

Friends, this Sunday we gather to commemorate the faithful departed, also known as All Souls Day. In the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) number 1030, it says, “All who die in God’s grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven”. This brings out the reality of our human frailty. There is a need to pray for our departed souls so that they enjoy eternal life with God.

However, the readings present a positive outlook regarding death. It reminds us that God has power over death. In the Gospel of Luke, we hear Jesus raise the dead man. It shows God’s power over death. Only God can give us new life. St Paul’s letter to the Romans teaches us that through Jesus we are reconciled to God. Jesus shows us a new path to God. In his death and resurrection, he transforms death to life and renews humanity. This gives us hope that even though we will go through death, new life awaits us.

As we commemorate our loved ones who have gone before us, we also remember our own faith journey. Our daily journey must be accompanied by daily conversion and trust in God. Our relationship with God allows us to renew our lives every day. Our purification should begin here on earth. But first, we must put our trust and hope in our God, acknowledging that he is the only one who has the power to transform and renew our lives.

As a Christian community, we have a responsibility to continue to pray for our loved ones who have passed on. We join with them in prayer, invoking the mercy and love of God upon them. We trust in God’s mercy and love. The first reading gives us hope and comfort, knowing that “God will destroy death forever. The Lord will wipe away the tears from every cheek; he will take away his people’s shame everywhere on earth, for the Lord has said so”. These words present to us God’s promise and God’s love for us. He wants us to be with him, enjoying his peace in his kingdom.

May all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.
