THE PARRAMATTA WAY OF SAFEGUARDING IS TO...

Act with Justice, and state that we have a zero tolerance for any form of abuse or harm to children or any person; ensure that laws and obligations are upheld, and safety is paramount.

"This is what the Lord asks of you: only this, to act justly, to love tenderly and to walk humbly with your God." (Micah 6:8)

That he is the Chosen One of God

This Sunday is the Second Sunday of Ordinary Time and we will be in this first Ordinary Time until the middle of February when Lent begins. In the Gospel we hear about John the Baptist identifying Jesus as “the lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world.” According to Matthew John the Baptist does not know Jesus but he knew his job was to identify him. This was made possible because he saw the Holy Spirit coming down on Jesus, like a dove and resting on him. Therefore John the Baptist is able to declare, “I have seen and I am the witness that he is the Chosen One of God.”

John the Baptist had a particular mission and you and I are invited to recognise that we have a mission as well. It is a twofold mission, firstly because of our Baptism, we have been anointed with the Holy Spirit and through Confirmation we have been sealed with the Holy Spirit and called into service. And secondly, we are invited to recognise the presence of the Holy Spirit in our world today and through the words and actions of others, just as John the Baptist did.

Those of us who are Baptised are baptised with water and the Holy Spirit. The water helps us understand the urgency and force of our call to be disciples of Jesus. The Holy Spirit assists us to know God’s Will in our lives. Both John the Baptist and Jesus had a calling. You and I have a calling, a vocation. As we begin this new year, how are we going to live out our vocation? Some days it is easy, other days, not so much. Perhaps over the years we can recognise that we are not as committed as we once were, can 2026 be the year we renew our commitment to take up the challenge of being disciples of and witnesses to the Good News?

Often we can feel as if the world has made a wrong turn or is moving in a direction that we cannot support. However, as believers, we are invited to recognise the Holy Spirit is alive and active in our world today. How do we see the ‘signs of the times’? How open are we to experiencing God’s closeness to us in our world and through others?

May God bless you, all those you love and all who love you.

FEAST DAY OF ST FRANCIS DE SALES

Next Saturday we celebrate the Feast day of St Francis de Sales a Bishop, a Doctor of the Church, a spiritual director, author, preacher and co-founder of the Order of the Visitation. He is also the patron of journalists. His most famous writing was the "Introduction to the Devout Life." One of his great teachings is the importance of the present moment, not living in the past or the future because this is the place where we come to know and live God's will.
