THE PARRAMATTA WAY OF SAFEGUARDING IS TO...

Act with Justice, and state that we have a zero tolerance for any form of abuse or harm to children or any person; ensure that laws and obligations are upheld, and safety is paramount.

"This is what the Lord asks of you: only this, to act justly, to love tenderly and to walk humbly with your God." (Micah 6:8)

WORD OF GOD: A light for searching world

In one of my recent conversations with parishioners after a weekday Mass, the emerging culture of our time was talked about. This dialogue provided deep insights into our world, which, in many ways, seems increasingly uncertain and searching. As humanity recognizes its technological, moral, ecological, and existential limits, we are witnessing a shift from certainty to responsibility, from abstract ideals to concrete realities, and from the pursuit of power to the search for meaning. We are not living in an era of consensus, but one of profound reorientation. Across different cultures and belief systems, people are asking not only what is true, but what kind of world we are becoming and what it truly means to be human. This search for meaning is particularly the challenge among young people, who have grown up in a post-secular, post-ideological society that is rich in information and knowledge, yet often struggles with a sense of transcendence.

In this context, the Word of God speaks powerfully. The Third Sunday of Ordinary Time, established by Pope Francis as the Sunday of the Word of God, highlights the centrality of Sacred Scripture in the life of the Church. Scripture is not merely something to be read, but to be proclaimed, listened to, studied, and lived. "The Word of God is not a distant or abstract text; it is a living Word that speaks directly to humanity, especially in times of confusion, division, and longing (cf. Dei Verbum)."

The Gospel of Matthew (4:12–23) beautifully illustrates this message. Jesus begins His ministry in Galilee, a region populated by Gentiles, signaling that the good news is for all people. He proclaims the Kingdom of God, calls disciples, and heals the sick, fulfilling Isaiah's prophecy of a great light shining on those in darkness. In a world searching for direction, the Gospel declares that this light has already entered history.

In his First Letter to the Corinthians (1:10–13, 17), St. Paul emphasizes the importance of unity in the Church. He reminds believers that their baptism is in the name of Christ, not in the name of any human leader. True unity, Paul insists, comes not from ideologies or personalities, but from a shared identity in Christ.

In a fragmented world overwhelmed by information yet yearning for meaning, the Word of God calls us back to what unites, heals, and enlightens us. It invites us not only to know more but to live more fully, rediscovering in Christ what it truly means to be human.

PRAYER FOR AUSTRALIA DAY

Grant, we pray, O Lord our God, that as the Cross shines in our southern skies, so may Christ bring light to our nation, to its peoples old and new.

We bless you, God of the universe, for this land, for its contrasts of landscape and climate, for its abundance of wealth and opportunity.

Father of all, we thank you for your care. You are our hope. Make us strong as we face the problems of change. We ask you to help all the people of Australia listen to and respect the culture of our First Nations Peoples.

Make the knowledge of you grow strong in all people, so that we can make a home for everyone in our land. Give us in our diversity tolerance and respect for each other and a passionate commitment to justice for all. Bless us so that we might be a blessing to others. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
