THE PARRAMATTA WAY OF SAFEGUARDING IS TO...

Act with Justice, and state that we have a zero tolerance for any form of abuse or harm to children or any person; ensure that laws and obligations are upheld, and safety is paramount.

"This is what the Lord asks of you: only this, to act justly, to love tenderly and to walk humbly with your God." (Micah 6:8)

It begins in the heart

“As long as you don’t do anything bad to someone, it’s okay.” Many people live by this idea, believing that as long as they avoid harming others, they are living rightly. But the Gospel calls us to something deeper. It demands more than mere avoidance of wrongdoing. It calls for the transformation of the heart.

The 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time invites us to deepen our understanding of God’s commandments, moving beyond external rules to the interior conversion of our hearts.

The Book of Sirach (15:15-20) reminds us that keeping the law is not a mere obligation, but an act of love, a deliberate choice between life and death, between good and evil. The choice we make shapes our eternity. Choosing to live by God’s commandments is, in essence, choosing life. St. Paul seems to tell us, as he writes to the Corinthians (1 Cor. 2:6–10), that true maturity comes from embracing God’s wisdom, a mysterious, hidden wisdom, predestined before the ages, prepared for those who love God, and revealed through the Spirit. This wisdom transforms the way we see and live in the world.

Jesus teaches that the law is fulfilled not simply through ritual obedience, but through righteous relationships in the kingdom of heaven. The essence of the law is self-giving love (cf. Matthew 5:17-37). Whenever self-giving is absent, even the strictest observance falls short. Keeping the law is not an end in itself, it is the path to a life of genuine care, of true connection with others, and ultimately, to the fullness of life.

The Lord does not come to impose new laws. He offers a renewed vision, a strengthened covenant, and the grace to obey from the heart, the place where human intentions are formed, purified, and directed toward God. True obedience begins within, guiding every act toward love, justice, and life. Let us guard what is formed in our hearts.

the season of Lent

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday 18th February, 2026.

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fast and abstinence.

Lent is a penitential season of prayer, self-denial and helping others.

We need to connect with each other. The great practices of lent are our means of connection. To pray is to connect with the Lord. To give alms is to practice human kindness. To fast is to connect with oneself. Take the ashes upon your foreheads this week and make the connection. We came from dust. But from this dust God has created something wonderful, this world and ourselves in it. Do not destroy God's work. As members of Jesus Christ, bring his peace to all people.

Masses for Ash Wednesday

7:00am; 9:00am; 7:00pm

This day is so very important as we begin our journey to Easter so it comes with the strongest recommendation to participate in the offering of the Mass and the reception of the ashes.

PREPARING FOR OUR PERSONAL LENTEN JOURNEY

We should never underrate the importance of this season as it is a time for renewal and new beginnings in our faith journey.

What special efforts are we going to make? How are we going to make prayer more important in our lives? How are we going to show our love for others? How important will project compassion be to us? What form of self-denial are we going to exercise to grow more to our potential? Our efforts do not need to be monumental, small acts of kindness may be all it takes; smile and thank the shop assistant; pick up some rubbish; hold the door for the stranger behind you; let someone into your lane - these small gestures of goodwill maybe all it takes for our personal new beginning, for our connectedness to each other and to our God. Use your heart, mind and hands to emulate Jesus. Make Lent your new beginning.

The official journey toward the International Eucharistic Congress 2028 (Eucharist28), to be held in Sydney, has formally begun with the launch of the website <https://eucharist28.org/> and the rollout of national parish resources across Australia.

Eucharist28 marks a significant moment in the life of the Church in Australia, coinciding with the centenary of the first International Eucharistic Congress (IEC) held in Sydney in 1928. More than a single event, the Congress is being shaped as a multi-year national pilgrimage of prayer, formation, and renewal, inviting Catholics across Australia, Oceania, and beyond to rediscover the transforming power of the Eucharist.

To mark the official commencement of this time of preparation for the IEC, there will also be a nationwide Holy Hour on Sunday, 1 March 2026. At St Andrew the Apostle Marayong we are planning to hold Eucharistic Adoration following the 8:45am Mass (until about 10:15am) that Second Sunday in Lent. Hearing the Gospel of the Transfiguration proclaimed on that Sunday, it is hoped that we may all be united in prayer across the country, seeking a eucharistic transfiguration of our own lives and within our communities.
