Mass Times for January 2021

We will be continuing with the Sunday Masses as we have during this period of Covid 19 which means there will be 6 Masses available for people to attend. Of course, the numbers continue to be limited according to government regulations which we follow soon as they are published.

During the week there will be a daily Mass at 9 AM. For the time being there will be no evening Mass of a Wednesday or a Friday evening.

Concerning live streaming

We will continue to live stream the Sunday morning Mass at 9:30 am.
However, since the restrictions have eased somewhat, and while the current situation stays in place, we will not live stream weekday Masses from Monday, January 4; this will be reviewed should things change.

TAP TO GIVE

Our Parish of St Andrew the Apostle relies on the generosity of our faith community to sustain our liturgical, sacramental, pastoral and charitable ministries and we are ever grateful for your support.

We now have two Tap to Give Devices that are situated near the doors of the Church to give our faith family a safe and easy way to support our Parish and ministry.

Please consider a Christmas Offertory gift. The devices have been pre-set with a gift amount of $10. If you wish to give more, please tap multiple times to increase your giving. Your gift will nurture the spiritual vitality of our Parish and will ensure that we can continue to provide Christian pastoral care that brings hope and joy to our community.

From Monsignor Ron ...

The Feast of Mary, the Mother of God is a very appropriate way to begin a new year. This celebration reminds us that the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God, is also our Heavenly Mother. This is an occasion to renew our devotion to Mary, who is also Mother of the Church because she is our spiritual mother — and we are the Church.

We ask God's blessing and Mary's intercession to guide us in this new year, so that in all that happens in the next twelve months, it will be hopefully for us a year of grace in which we bring to life the potential of our baptism and we became more aware and conscious of God's presence in our lives, blessing us, correcting us, and calling us in everything that happens.

Today's feast Day is also a world Day of prayer for peace. God's peace will not mean merely the absence of war or trouble. It will be of such a peace that those who behold it will strive to live it. There will no longer be any desire for conflict.

This weekend we have the Feast of the Epiphany on which we celebrate the wonderful truth of God's love which is always there for us; on our part, we need to open our hearts to it. It truly is something to celebrate and to live: a message that will stand out from all the distractions and noise of the world.

But it also challenges us to be wise enough to find God in the most unlikely places; it challenges us truly that we may discover every person is as precious and important as we are, however, different from us they may seem, however far outside our inner circle. And that is the challenge worth taking seriously.

God loves each one of us. He shares his greatest treasure with us and that is Jesus Christ. He wants us to live fully with the life of Jesus and to share this wonderful news with everyone we meet and associate with. That is a daily invitation and challenge for 2021.

“Loving Father, you chose a humble young woman to be mother of your only Son. Help us to express in our lives the love that she showed as the Mother of God and the ways in which we treat all those we meet. Rather this coming year we may be ever closer to you through this love.”

AN EXPRESSION OF THANKS: Fr Luis has now left us to return home and I'd like to take this opportunity to thank all those who contributed through the parish collection and in other ways to provide a gift to express our appreciation of his ministry over the past 2 years here at St Andrew the Apostle Marayong.

Pope Francis:

“Message for world Day of Peace”

At the dawn of a new year, I extend cordial greetings to Heads of State and Government, leaders of International Organizations, spiritual leaders and followers of the different religions, and to men and women of good will. To all I offer my best wishes that the coming year will enable humanity to advance on the path of fraternity, justice and peace between individuals, communities, peoples and nations.

The year 2020 was marked by the massive Covid-19 health crisis, which became a global phenomenon cutting across boundaries, aggravating deeply interrelated crises like those of the climate, food, the economy and migration, and causing great suffering and hardship. I think especially of all those who lost family members or loved ones, and all who lost their jobs. I think too of physicians and nurses, pharmacists, researchers, volunteers, chaplains and the personnel of hospitals and healthcare centres. They have made, and are continuing to make, great sacrifices to be present to the sick, to alleviate their sufferings and to save their lives; indeed, many of them have died in the process. In paying tribute to them, I renew my appeal to political leaders and the private sector to spare no effort to ensure access to Covid-19 vaccines and to the essential technologies needed to care for the sick, the poor and those who are most vulnerable.

There can be no peace without a culture of care

The culture of care thus calls for a common, supportive and inclusive commitment to protecting and promoting the dignity and good of all, a willingness to show care and compassion, to work for reconciliation and healing, and to advance mutual respect and acceptance. As such, it represents a privileged path to peace. “In many parts of the world, there is a need for paths of peace to heal open wounds. There is also a need for peacemakers, men and women prepared to work boldly and creatively to initiate processes of healing and renewed encounter”.

At a time like this, when the barque of humanity, tossed by the storm of the current crisis, struggles to advance towards a calmer and more serene horizon, the “rudder” of human dignity and the “compass” of fundamental social principles can enable us together to steer a sure course. As Christians, we should always look to Our Lady, Star of the Sea and Mother of Hope. May we work together to advance towards a new horizon of love and peace, of fraternity and solidarity, of mutual support and acceptance. May we never yield to the temptation to disregard others, especially those in greatest need, and to look the other way; instead, may we strive daily, in concrete and practical ways, “to form a community composed of brothers and sisters who accept and care for one another”.

THANK YOU FOR SHARING THE MIRACLE OF CHRISTMAS WITH FAMILIES IN NEED

Bishop Vincent, Parramatta Catholic Foundation, and CatholicCare thank you for your kind-hearted generosity and support over the last few weeks.

Our Bishop's Christmas Appeal raised over $8,400.00 which will enable CatholicCare's Project Elizabeth pregnancy support service to help vulnerable families in their efforts to give their children a positive start in life. Thank you for your gifts and prayers. For anyone who hasn't had a chance to donate, please visit yourcatholicfoundation.org.au/appeal

We ask you to continue to pray for the Diocesan ministries supported by the Parramatta Catholic Foundation, including the CatholicCare, and all vulnerable families in need.
